NEW YORK, April 4.-Considering the half-holiday here, and the fact that the London Exchange did not open at all, the stock market was fairly active toy. In addition, the undertone of scutation was strong, and any number the leading issues touched the best ures of the week. So far as the shipment of gold is concerned, it is stated that gold will not be on board until the last moment, and if there should be any has moment, and it there should be allow material therease in the supply of bills Monday, the shipment will be cancelled. If the gold is forwarded, it will be for the simple reason that the experters are unable to procure the bills needed to make their settlements abroad. The to make their settlements abroad. The comparatively heavy decrease in the bank reserves, which brings the amount held in excers of the 5 per cent, required by law down to $17,005,975, had no influence. In fact, operators were disposed to look upon the bright side of things, and were quick to take advantage of the favorable developments of the day. to look upon the bright side of things, and were quick to take advantage of the favorable developments of the day. Among these may be noted the splendid traffic returns of the St. Paul railroad and the advance of 25 cents in iron made by the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company. Manhattan was quoted a bull card, rising from 107% to 107% on reports that the company will secure important privileges from the city in connection, with the Brooklyn bridge traffic. Metropolitan Traction, on the other hand, fell from 105% to 102 on the talk about a strike of the company's employes in this city. Among the western railroads St. Paul. Rock Island, and Burlington and Quincy were in the best request on reports that corn is moving freely. St. Paul rose to 76%, Rock Island to 72%, and Burlington to 78%. Union Facilic and the shares of the subsidiary lines were more prominent, and sold at higher figures than of late, on the belief that the reorganization had improved. Tennessee Coal jumped about 26 per cent. to 20%, and Illinois Steel 25% to 60%. Speculation closed strong. Net changes show gains of 1,481% per cent. Tennessee Coal, however, gained Pi, per cent. The total sales were 886,750 shares, including 20,500 gains of 1,931% per cent. The total sales were 886,751 shares, including 29,500 Tobacco, 14,200 Sugar, 7,700 Union Pacific, and 6,500 St. Paul. NEW YORK, April 4.—The New York Financier says this week; The statement of the Clearing-House banks of New York city for the week ending April 4th is unimportant in its general features, the operations of the general features, the operations of the week being shown in the decrease of $1.141.450 in the reserve, leaving the excess cash in the banks at $17.050.975, as against $13.029.928 for the same week last year. The excess reserve touched its lowest point—$14.413.492—on March 30, 1895, and from that time began to increase, standing four weeks later at $25,270.675. But during that time imports of gold were in excess of exports, and the movement from Europe during the next menth, or in May, amounted in the aggregate to $3,308,869. The interior movement at the same time was tarior movement at the same time was heavy, the reserve of the New York banks standing on May 25, 1885, at the hog market were disappointing, and the hog market were disappointing, and the third that evidently affected the feeling in the total provisions. one of them. The Government also has a large sum of money deposited with designated banks, and a call for a portion of this money may be made at any time. The movement in the interior has not been, as yet, a disturbing factor, but it will be seen readily that the outlook becomes more complicated, in view of the presence of factors which were absent last year. Then the rate for call money ranged between ½ per cent. It of the presence of factors which were absent last year. Then the rate for call money ranged between ½ per cent. It was never above 2½ per cent, when the reserve was $4,000,000 less than at present. This, too, is in the face of the fact that a certain percentage of foreign money is being loaned in the market. The latter fact is significant, and it is said it has a bearing in delaying a call from the treasury for bank deposits. The reserves of many of the New York The reserves of many of the New York banks are already down to the required limit, and the outlook, despite the com-parisons with last year, does not seem to parisons with last year, does not seem to favor easier rates at present. The explanation of this lies in the fact that one conditions are more normal and the locking up of a great deal of money by the bond transactions has counteracted the inflation from which the country has been suffering since 1892.

FOLLOWERS OF IMMORTAL LEB

The Preparations For Their Reception at the Confederacy's Capital.

SOME OF THE ABLE CHAIRMEN Who Are in Charge of the Giganic Task,

Texas Wants to Come Solid If Rates Can Be Secured_Indian Territory Heard from-Work on the Auditorium.

Preparations go briskly on for the great renulon of the gallant followers of the immortal Lee, to take place on June 30th and July 1st next. The different commit-tees appointed by General Peyton Wise, chairman of the Executive Committee, are hard at work, and Capt. Thomas El-lett, secretary of the Executive Committee, scarcely has a moment to himself, night

As printed in last Sunday's Times, circulars giving all necessary information in regard to the reunion, have been sent broadcast over the country by Capt. Ellett. He has also sent out letters re-questing all commands or camps that wish to attend to notify him promptly of the fact, in order that suitable preparations may be made to entertain them. Although the reunion is yet a long time off, Capt. Ellett has already received a number of etters, all showing the greatest enthu-ciasm. Some of them come from far-off Texas and Indian Territory. TEXAS COMING SOLID.

TEXAS COMING SOLID.

The general sentiment is well expressed by the letter received from Major Joe D. Harris, commanding the "Mountain Remnants," of Burnet, Tex. He says: "There are many hundreds of old Confederate soldiers of the Army of Northern Virginia, who stood the tempest for four and a balt years. The old Vers. of the and a half years. The old Vets, of the Army of Northern Virginia, who reside in this State want to see old Virginia once more, and those who never saw old Virginia want to come. But money is carce, and unless our railroads are gen erous enough to give special rates, no exceeding $15 all-round, I fear that many worthy old boys cannot come. Texas will come solid if rates for this long haul are low enough."

The letter from Indian Territory is signed by R. B. Coleman, Major-General Commanding, and is of the same tenor. All are anxious to come, and will be pre-vented only by the lack of funds. The men selected as chairmen of the various committees to carry out plans in connection with the great event are pecultarly fitted for the work, both becau of the wide experience which they have the intense interest which they take in all that concerns the survivors of the matchless army of the Confederacy. CAPT. D. A. BROWN.

Peculiarly appropriate is the appoint-ment of Capt. D. A. Brown, Jr., to the chairmanship of the Entertainment Committee. Every one knows the ability of the genial and handsome Quartermaster of R. E. Lee Camp in the entertaining of R. E. Lee Camp in the entertaining line from past experience.

Capt. Brawn's record in the Confederate army is one of which any man might justly be proud. In his fifteenth year he entered in the Farker Battery, of this city, known as the "Boy Battery," which he was instrumental in organizing. He was wounded at Sharpsburg. May 3, 1833, he was captured at Marye's Heights, paroled from Fort Delaware, and exchanged. He was wounded again at Gettysburg, but as soon as he recovered he returned to the army, and served in all of the engagements fought by the Army of the Potomac.

He was again wounded at North Anna river while assisting in destroying a bridge to prevent General Grant's army from crossing to turn General Lee's right flank. Capt. Brown was captured again April 6 1865, at Sailor's Creek, and was paroled from Point Lookout July 1, 1865. For sev-en years he has served as quartermaster of R. E. Lee Camp.

Capt. Brown has had charge of entertaining the veterans since the unveiling of the Lee monument, at which time 10,000 ex-Confederate veterans were dined in the tabernacle near Richmond College. At the unveiling of the Private Soldiers' and Sailors' monument, he entertained 7,000 veterans, and 5,000 at the reinterment Capt. Brown is now making arrange ments to entertain 20,000 veterans, and from letters received, he is confident there will be a larger gathering of Confederates than has been witnessed in Richmond COL. JNO. B. CARY.

He was wounded slightly at Gettysburg, Cold Harber, the Howlett Line; was captured at Five Forks April 1, 1885, and released from Point Lookout the latter part of June, 1865. He never missed a battle, skirmish, or march in which the old First was engaged.

F. W. MAHOOD.

F. W. MAhood, chairman of the Committee to Receive and Entertain Visiting Sons of Veterans, is secretary of R. E. Lee Camp, No. 1, S. C. V., and has always been an enthusiastic member of the organization, and was one of its charter members. Nothing gives him more pleasure than to hear of the organization pleasure than to hear of the organization of a camp of Sons Confederate Veterans, or to help in any way he can the forwarding of this work.

As the first camp of S. C. V. ever established, it is peculiarly fitting that Lee Camp S. C. V., through its committee, should give the right-hand of followship and welcome to the sons of those who fought so long for Richmond's protection, and the committee will leave no stone unturned to make all the Sons who visit Richmond in June remember their stay in the capital of the Confederacy.

The committee would like all camps of Sons in the South who will visit Richmond next June, at once to write it the number of members they will bring. Ad-dress Committee for Reception of S. C. V., Box 131, Richmend, Va. THE MILITARY COMMITTEE.

The Military Committee, of which Gen. A. L. Philitps is chairman, and Capt. George P. Shakelford secretary, are also busily at work. Pursuant to orders from Gen. Phillips, Capt. Shakelford has com-municated with the Adjutant-Generals of the various States, and requested them to furnish a list of troops that will attend from their States. As yet no responses have been received, nor are any expected until next month.

The work on the auditorium at the Fair Grounds is progressing briskly, and it will be completed by June 15th next. The work is being carefully done, and when finished nearly 9,000 persons can be comfortably scated.

The laying of the corner-stone of the Jefferson Davis monument, which takes place on the 2d of July, will be a notable occasion in connection with the unveiling. Mr. J. Taylor Ellyson, president of the Jefferson Davis Monument Association, has received a letter from Throckmorton Camp, No. 19, U. C. GEN. PEYTON WISE'S LETTER.

General Peyton Wise has addressed the following letter to the ladies of the different memorial associations of this city:

Richmond, Va., April 4, 1896.

Confederacy:
Under the organization for the entertainment of the Confederate veterans at their forthcoming sixth reunior. I have to appoint a committee to "entertain visiting ladies and for other important purposes." It will be the special business committee to see that the lady poses." It will be the special business of this committee to see that the lady sponsors of each State are appropriately sponsors of each State are appropriately provided for, to resist ofther visiting ladies in every necessary way, to consider and arrange for executing, when adopted, a plan of diversions for the Confederate veterans themselves when they are out of convention, and to do such other work hs from time to time may be referred to them.

The performance of these labors is not coly an important but a necessary part only an important, but a necessary part only an important, but a necessary part of our programme.

I know of no source from which I could better select the ladies to constitute this committee than those noble bands of wo-men who, since the war, have been instant and urgent in preserving the memo-ries of the dead and in caring for the wretched and needy living of those armies of the South who crowded the empty folios of fame with the records of their deeds and daring. Whoever else their deeds and daring. Whoever else might fail in expression of the public de-votion to these spiendid heroes of the past, no less worthy to-day in the midst of peace, these ladies will not.

I confidently invite the officers and executive committees of the associations to which this is addressed to be the committee named. I shall invite one of your number to summon the committee thus constituted at an early day. When met It must make its own organization it must make its own organization. It can do it far better than I can. Truth is, I think so much of all of you that did I undertake to select a chairman I should appoint every one of the committee to be so, and that, you know, wouldn't do at all. Very respectfully.

Easter Even, as the michael, rector. Easter Even, as the time for the unveiling, was recognized by all to whom it was an interest, as particularly fitting. The character of the gathering at the church was in harmony with the significance of the day—Via Media, as it is between the agony of Calvary and the close of the start. of Calvary and the glory of the resur-rection—and the nature of the special ex-ercises. The contingent who usually come to see were without any representa-tion, and it was evident to the most careless observer that those present were wor shippers. In the pew with Mrs. Mary Pegram Anderson sat Colonel John Pegram and Miss Isabelle Pegram, ot Providence, R. I.; Colonel Archer An-derson, Misses Sally, Mary Mason, and Kathleen Anderson, and Colonel Hobson were among other representatives of the family noticed as present.

A BEAUTIFUL SCENE.

Every beauty the interior of the church cossesses was accentuated by the brilliant smlight which, just before the entrance of the choristers, burst with noonday ullness through the last window of the chancel, and made the white-and-gold et-ects peculiarly vivid and pure. It fell, too, with strength which was remarked upon the white curtain which velled the panel, suggesting some exquisite similes to those in keen touch with what the panel stood for.

The entrance of the boy choristers from the vestry-room announced the arrival of the hour for service. They entered with-out the usual processional, followed by the young ladies of the choir and Mr.

Carmichael.

The ante-communion service, concluding with the collect for Easter-Even, and the Lenten collect, preceded the reaging of the epistle and gospel for the day, the Nicene Creed, and the singing of hymn 176 of the new hymnal—

DR. CARMICHAEL'S SERMON. After announcing that infant baptism rould be administered at 4 o'clock, and giving the services for Easter-Day, which include three administrations of the holy communion (at 8, 9:30, and 11 o'clock), Dr. Carmichael proceeded to the delivery of his sermon, which was, in one, an exposition of the significance of the day in the church year and a masterly and feeling tribute to the pure and splendid character of General Joseph R. Anderson. Easter-Even, he reminded his hearers. Easter-Even, he reminded his hearers, was the day which the Savieur of men spent in the great unknown land of departed spirits, not in sleep, but in activ-ity. He proceeded to show how thin the well which hides that land from this, leading finally up to the special object of the gathering of St. Paul's at this time. He gathering of St. Paul's at this time. FARMVILLE'S MAYORALTY FIGHT, To B or Not to B, That's the Question

Easter Excursionists. FARMVILLE, April 4.—Special.—Our town is now much agitated upon the question as to who the next mayor will be. Already there are three candidates squarely in the field, namely, Messra, R. M. Burton, H. E. Barrow, and W. S. Blanton.

Blanton.
It seems to be the impression of many people that several more of our prominent citizens, whose names commence with the letter B. will announce themselves for the same office in a few days.
By some of Captain Martin's friends it has been suggested that one Martin can destroy many Bees, and he is only waiting to have them all out before he makes the attack.

It is also removed that an attempt will be made to make a number of changes in our Town Council. To those helding salaried offices this means much, as the Council elects every salaried officer, ex-
